EQ = _____

EQ is defined as both:

- 1) the ability to _____, _____, & _____ emotional responses
- 2) The ability to _____ others emotional status and _____ to appropriately

The 5 components of EQ are:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

A higher EQ has many many benefits including:

- Greater self-awareness and ability to overcome personal challenges

Role #1 VICTIM

Where in My Life Do I Play the Victim?	What is the Price I Pay for Being a Victim?	Why is this important for me to change?

Role #2 MARTYR

Where in My Life Do I Play the Martyr?	What is the Price I Pay for Being a Martyr?	Why is this important for me to change?

Role #3 VILLAIN

Where in My Life Do I Play the Villain?	What is the Price I Pay for Being a Villain?	Why is this important for me to change?

The Fourth Role: Leadership

Now that you have clarified your roles in the previous exercise, let's look at how you can start taking steps to make some changes.

What a Leader does

- Takes risks to be more open, loving, understanding, communicative and honest
- Holds others accountable in a loving way
- Practices authentic leadership by supporting and empowering those around them to reach their full potential

What a Leader gets

- Feels more in control of life and has closer relationships with good communication
- Is surrounded by people that both support them and know they can be counted on
- Finds more success professionally and personally
- Is proud of who they are, fulfilled with life and excited to continue finding ways to grow

Once you have identified the roles you play and the price you pay....

You can then start taking leadership action steps in those areas of your life that will lead to change!

A key to your motivation will be how important this area of your life is to change.....in other words, is the price you pay great enough to start taking action?

COMFORT ZONE

All the Magic happens OUTSIDE your Comfort Zone!

Taking Risks moves you outside the Zone.

Are You Ready to Make Change Happen?!

Change I want to make in my life:

On a scale of 1-10 how important is this to me? _____

What will my life look like 1 year from now if I DO NOT MAKE this change?

What will my life look like 1 year from now when I DO MAKE this change?

FINAL CONCEPT: SUPPORT

Change is not easy, and often we are not given the EQ tools we need to make those goals and dreams happen. Knowledge and Support are key to actually affecting the changes. Nobody achieves any goal without the help of others.
